Princes Street Gardens

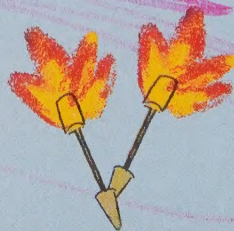

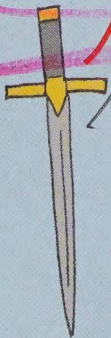

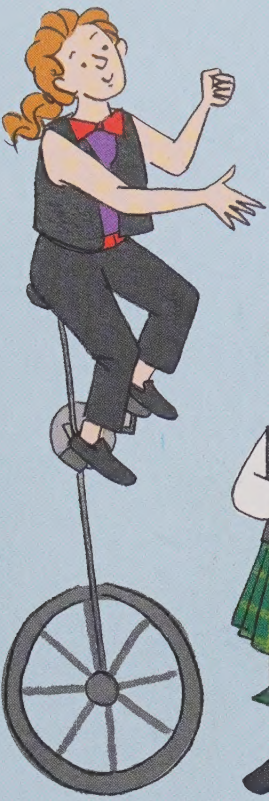

Welcome to Edinburgh! In summer people gather in Princes Street Gardens in front of Edinburgh Castle. Use your stickers to complete the picture.

Edinburgh Fringe

During the summer, Edinburgh is full of festival performers. Follow the lines to help everyone find what they're missing.

4 sword

shoes

umbrella

juggling sticks guitar

bagpipes

Edinburgh Castle

Edinburgh Castle was built hundreds of years ago. Colour in this picture of the people who lived and worked there.

DID YOU KNOW? Edinburgh Castle is built on Castle Rock, a 300 million-year-old extinct volcano.

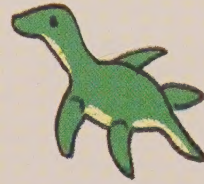

Scottish souvenirs

Which gift would you choose?

How many can you spot?

green Nessie toy poster

blue tartan scarf

red tartan hat

shortbread

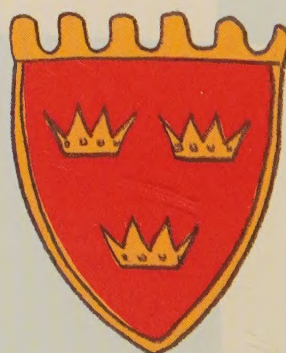

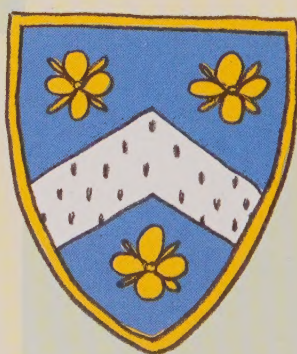

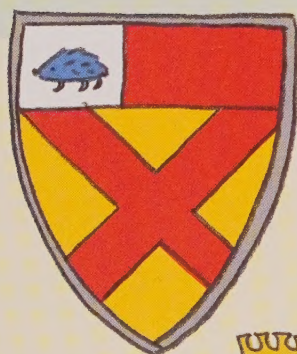

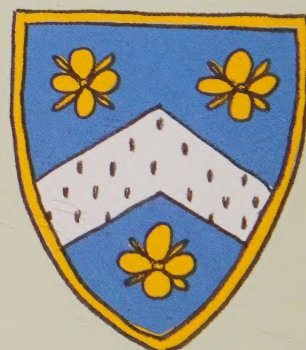

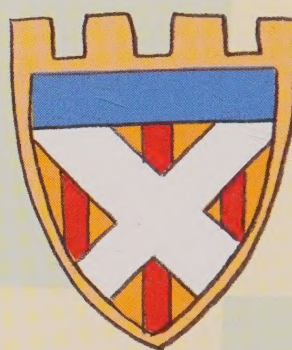

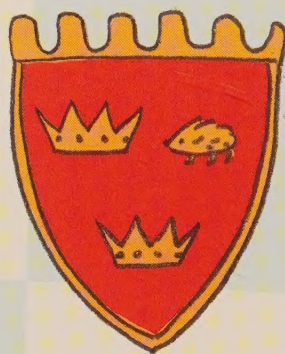

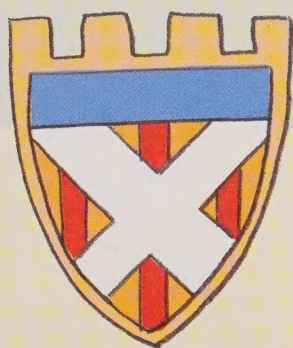

blue t-shirt

Write your answers in the boxes.

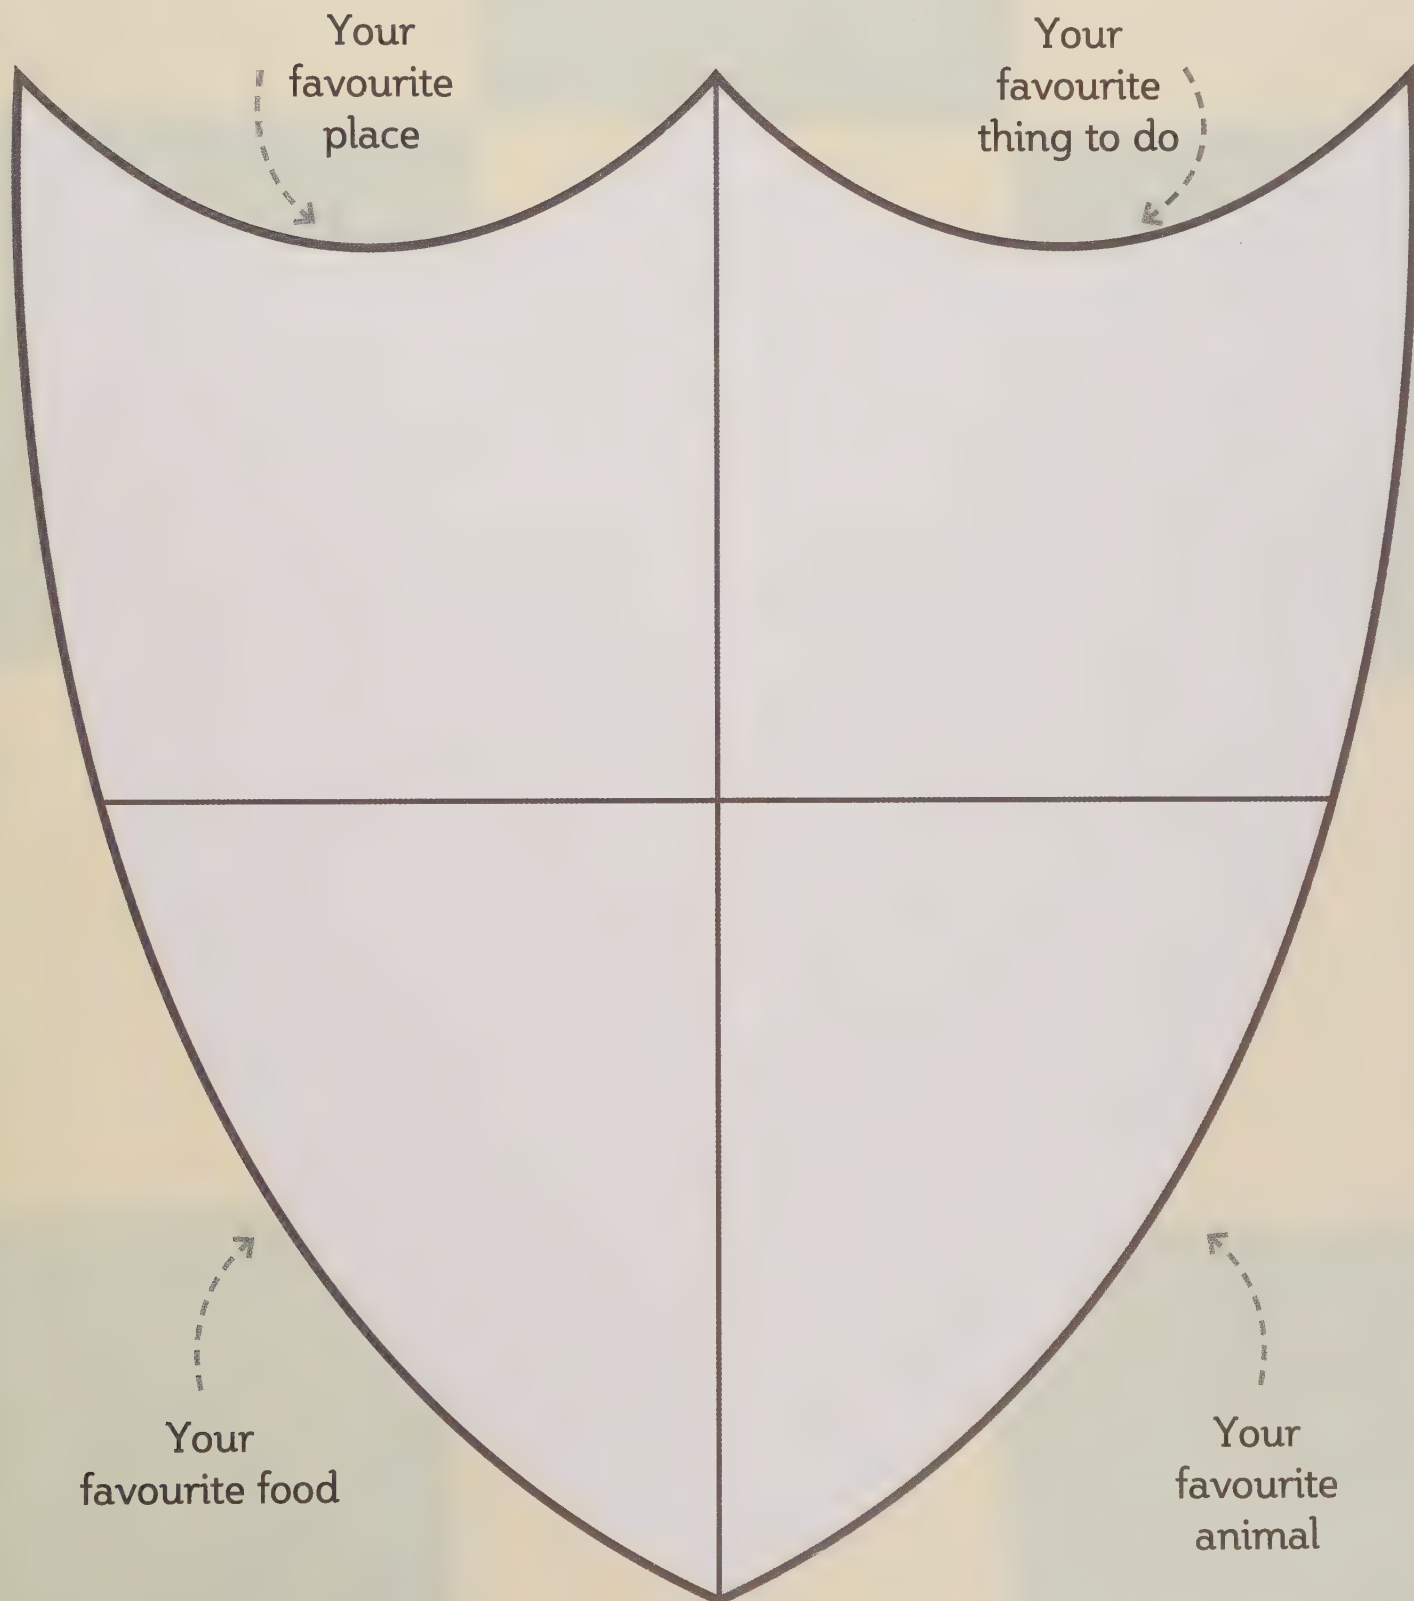

Clan shields

Many noble Scottish families, also called clans, have their own special badge, called a coat-of-arms, which appears on their flags and shields. Draw lines between each matching pair of shields. Which two are the odd ones out?

DID YOU KNOW? Some of these are real clan shields – see p.40 to find out which!

Each picture on a coat-of-arms represents something important to that family. Create your own coat-of-arms by drawing 4 of your favourite things on the shield below.

Animals in Scotland

The Scottish countryside is full of wonderful animals.
Match the animals to their shadow.

Edinburgh Zoo

Edinburgh Zoo is home to animals from around the world.
Can you spot 15 differences between these pictures of the zoo?

DID YOU KNOW? Edinburgh Zoo is the only place in the UK you can see pandas.

Around Glasgow

An open-top bus is a great way to explore Glasgow. But which route takes you across the city to the People's Palace without getting stuck?

DID YOU KNOW? Glasgow might not be the capital of Scotland (that's Edinburgh), but it's the biggest city in the country.

The Tall Ship

Sail the high seas in the Glenlee, also known in Glasgow as the Tall Ship. Oh no, the ship needs more sails! Join the dots, and colour in the flags and sails.

How many
can you spot?

grey cat

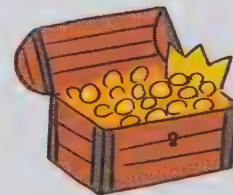

sugar

rope

rat treasure chest

Write your answers in the boxes.

Where is the Captain hiding?

George Square lion

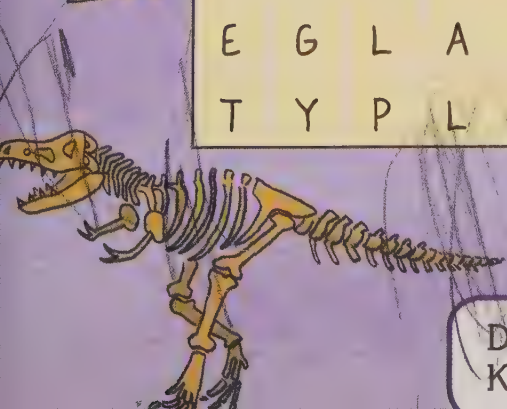

One of the lions who guards Glasgow's George Square is missing half of his body. Copy the picture to make a whole lion and then colour it in.

Kelvingrove Museum

Glasgow's Kelvingrove Museum is full of fascinating exhibits. Can you find all these museum words? They go horizontally, vertically and even backwards!

HIVE COLONY BEES BEEKEEPER
SPITFIRE
AEROPLANE MACKINTOSH
EGYPT MUMMY
HIEROGLYPHICS ELEPHANT SIR ROGER SWORD ARMOUR
T-REX
DINOSAUR FOSSIL

DID YOU KNOW? Sir Roger the elephant has been in Kelvingrove Museum since it opened over 100 years ago.

William Wallace

William Wallace was a famous soldier who fought for Scottish independence from England over 700 years ago.

Draw lines between faces with the same pattern and circle the odd one out.

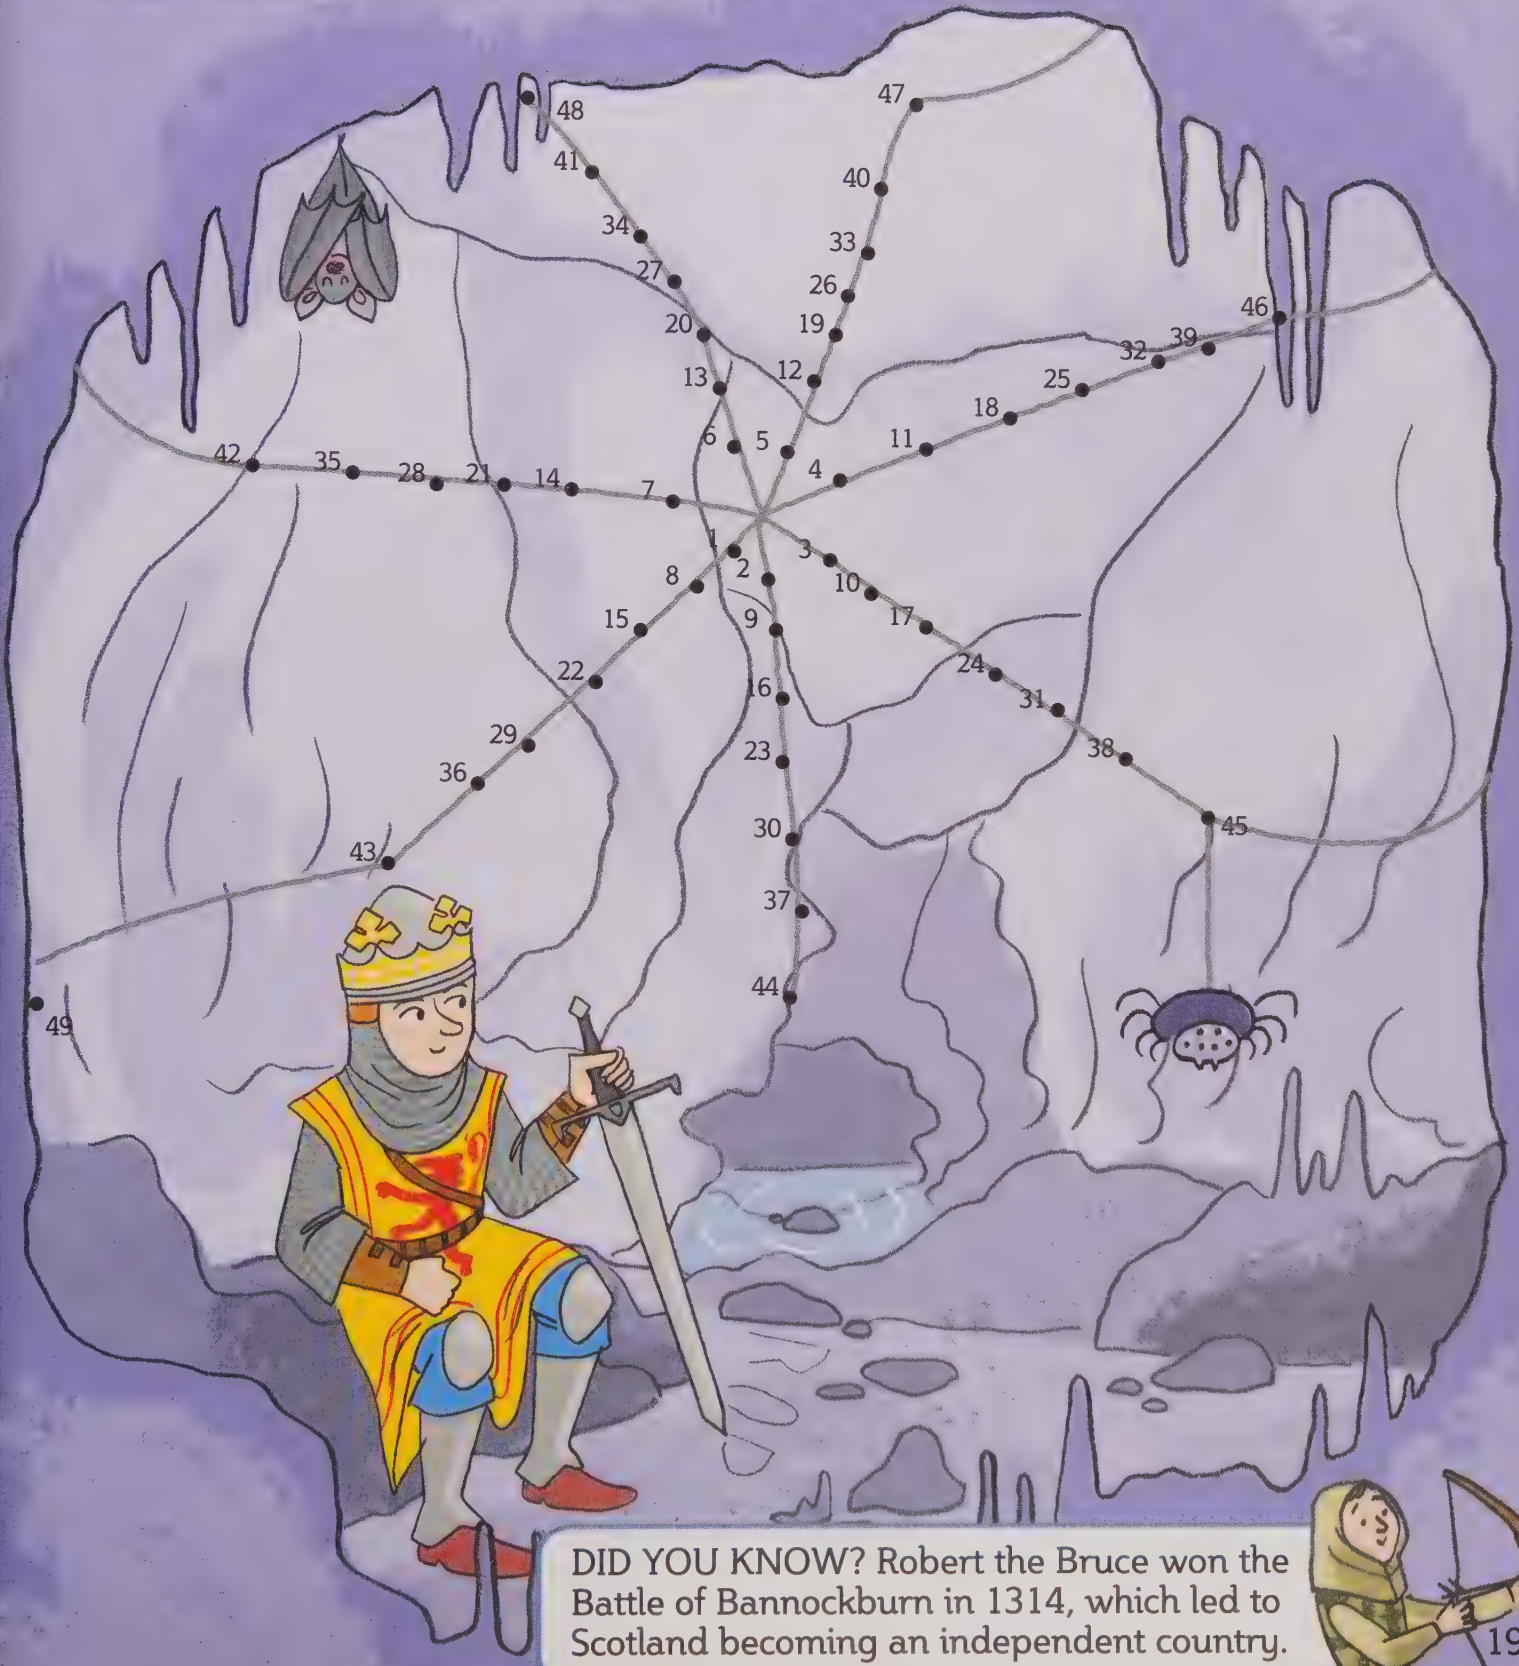

DID YOU KNOW? William Wallace was killed in a very unpleasant way (hung, drawn and quartered!) to teach a lesson to the rebellious Scots.

Robert the Bruce

Robert the Bruce was hiding in a cave from the English army when he saw a spider fail to weave its web 6 times – but it succeeded the seventh time! So King Robert was inspired not to give up his fight for independence. Join the dots to make a spiderweb.

DID YOU KNOW? Robert the Bruce won the Battle of Bannockburn in 1314, which led to Scotland becoming an independent country.

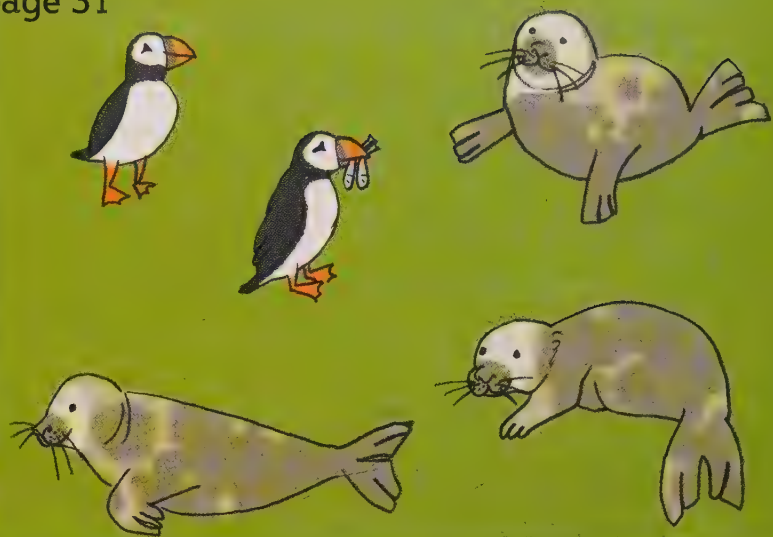

Highland Games

Highland Games are celebrated all over Scotland – and the world. People watch sports like caber tossing and hammer throwing, listen to bagpipe bands and watch highland dancers perform.

Follow the lines to help each performer find their missing item.

Just for fun

Highland dancers

Can you match these Highland dancers by their tartan?

Draw a line between each matching pair.

Then colour in this Highland dancer and design your own tartan.

Highland Games activities

Who will win this tug of war? Add up the numbers on the teams' t-shirts and write your answers in the boxes. The biggest number wins!

Will green or purple win the weight-throwing contest? Count how many points each team has by seeing where their weights have landed. Add up the points and write your answers in the box.

Who won?

Bagpipe music

This bagpiper is playing a jolly tune but his music is missing some notes. Fill in the blank spaces for each tune.

A day at Loch Ness

Welcome to Loch Ness – home of the famous monster! All the visitors to Urquhart Castle are searching for Nessie. Can you spot her?

Colour in the castle, the loch and the visitors. Why not add some stickers?

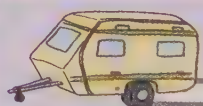

North Coast 500

Take a trip along Scotland's famous North Coast 500 and visit brilliant castles, museums, battle sites, standing stones and beaches!

Which part of the North Coast 500 have these vehicles visited? Use the symbols to work out each route and colour in the lines.

The Loch Ness Monster

Join the dots to draw Nessie.

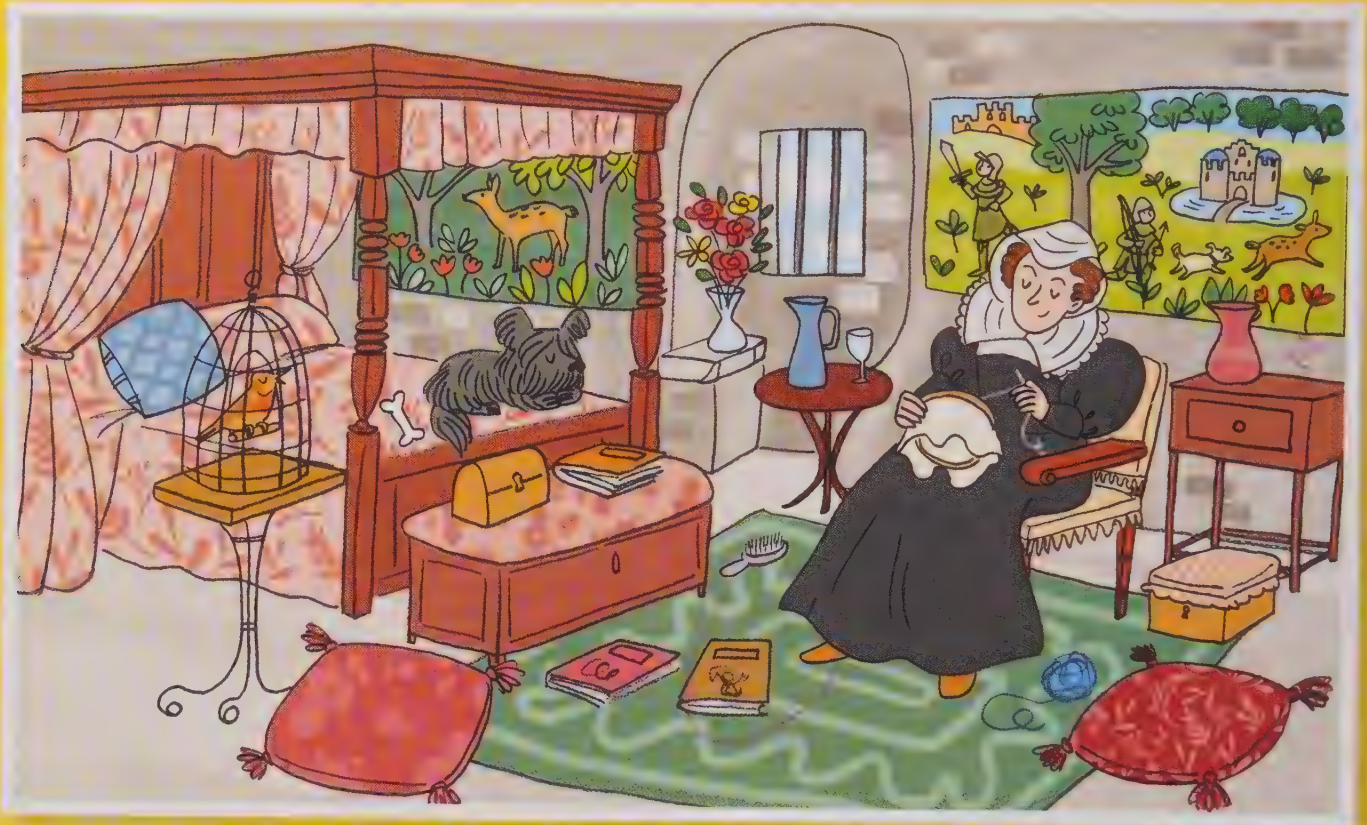

Look at the creatures below. Which one matches your drawing?

That's the real Loch Ness Monster!

Mary, Queen of Scots

Mary, Queen of Scots was imprisoned in Loch Leven Castle for almost a year. Can you spot 10 differences between these pictures of Mary in the castle?

Bonnie Prince Charlie

After the battle of Culloden, Scottish hero Bonnie Prince Charlie hid in the Outer Hebrides. Can you help him and brave Flora MacDonald sail back to Skye?

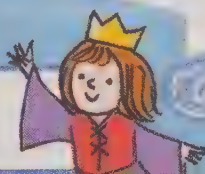

Start here!

SKYE

DID YOU KNOW? The Skye Boat Song was written about Charlie's dangerous journey.

Scottish animals

DID YOU KNOW? Seals live in the sea all around Scotland but especially in Orkney, the Shetland Islands and the Hebrides.

Can you draw a seal or a puffin? Give it a try below.

Scottish islands

The beautiful Scottish islands are home to lots of birds and wildlife. Add some stickers to this island scene.

Kelpies statues

Kelpies are mythical Scottish water horses that live in lochs.

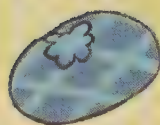

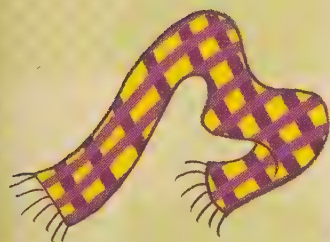

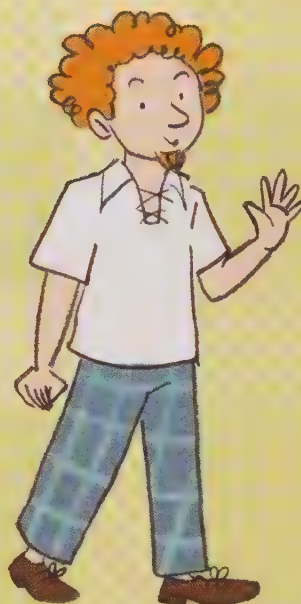

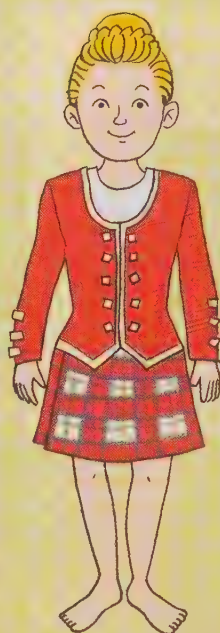

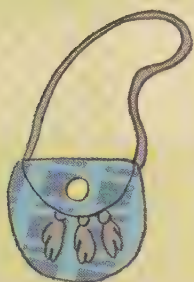

Join the dots to draw the kelpies statues.

Now colour them in and bring them to life!

Scottish tartan

Can you help these people find their lost property? Draw lines between each person and their matching tartan objects. What's left over?

DID YOU KNOW? Different clans in Scotland have their own tartan design. One astronaut, Alan Bean, even took some of his family's tartan to the Moon!

Scottish food

Lots of yummy food comes from Scotland.
Follow the trails to work out what everyone is eating.

DID YOU KNOW? Haggis is a sausage made from sheep's insides, oatmeal and spices. It's more tasty than it sounds and it's Scotland's national dish!

seafood

haggis

fish supper

ice cream

shortbread

chips

DID YOU KNOW? Scottish people love haggis so much that there was a poem written about it – Address to a Haggis by Robert Burns.

Scots words

Robert Burns is Scotland's most famous poet.
He wrote his poems in the Scots language.
Can you find all the hidden Scots words?
